Convenient Clock Crack X64

Play your favorite music at alarm time. Improved Alarm Mechanism: Pause your alarm at specified time. You can set up alarm for a specific time in the future. Record a Custom Reminder Message: Record a reminder message with message text and picture and play it at alarm time to remind you of the event. System Tray Notification: Alarm can be received from the tray if you go out for a while. When you return, you can dismiss the message which has been playing in the system tray. Exit: If you click Exit button, your currently playing alarm will stop automatically. Recording a Custom Reminder Message is optional. Upgrading feature: You can insert a Beep command (ctrl + b) to play a beep sound at specified time in the future. Plays Up To: Up to 128 MB of RAM is required. All known sound/video drivers should work. If you are experiencing problems with your sound/video drivers, try downloading the latest versions or restarting your computer and see if the problem is resolved. Current version has a 300% CPU load while playing sound in fullscreen mode. This issue will be solved when I can use newer sound system or proper fix.
