
Escape From Tarkov Time Phase

April 13, 2019 - 2 raids in a row, now I put on nvg to go at night. Both times the timer showed between 20:00 and 21:00. Both times I go in and it's already broad daylight. ---- R.D. In this sense, there are even advantages: for example, if I want to spend the night in a dungeon, then I can take NVG with me in my backpack and not worry about not having time to enter. And then later all the characters who entered before me will have a lot of bugs if they don't have time to clean them up. I, as always, decided that I needed a good chance, so I went to 2 raids in a row, so that if one of them failed, at least the second one was better. R.D.
