It depends on the quality of your hardware. You can't compare computers since the advent of the PC. Now every game has different system requirements. Even Battlefield 1 requires 4gb ram, 16gb ddr3 and i7-4790k. This is no longer a game, but a race for the performance you can provide. I'm sure you will have a better PC than I do. But I'm sure my PC will be more powerful than yours, and that your PC can't do what mine can do.
