If you are familiar with WealthScript and are seeking a more robust solution than what it offers, MultiSystem is the right choice for you. MultiSystem is a free framework for combining multiple scripts written for Wealth-Lab into aggregated trading systems, thus allowing traders to achieve a new level of diversification which, with the right choice of individual systems, will result in a better risk/reward ratio, a smoother equity curve and as a result, a more profitable trading. MultiSystem also extends some of the built-in WealthScript functions and provides systems developers with more flexibility by allowing them to adapt some of these functions to their specific needs.
