A glorious explosion of energy and flashy colors, the game was first released in 2016 and has now been reimagined with all new technology and reworked gameplay. 'Viral EX' features fully support for the HTC Vive, including support for tracking and rooms. Play as either the beautiful, chameleon-like Princess Sarah, who can transform into any color, or as our fearless virus-defender, Ragnarok, who uses the Blaster and Deflector Shield. And thanks to the Ultimate Gun, the new pair of dual-wield guns that are mastered with practice, you'll be the last one standing! As always, don't let this game get out of your hands - come in and get infected now! Please be aware that this is a very early alpha version of the game. The game is currently not finished, though the game is still playable. Some features are missing and the game has not been fully tested. Many areas and features will be improved and expanded over time. Viral EX is currently playable on Steam for Windows and Mac, but this version is still subject to major changes and updates over time, so the features may change. We hope you enjoy playing it, and we look forward to hearing your feedback. Also, to keep track of all the latest development updates, please follow us on Twitter at or visit Feel free to submit a bug report at Playable versions of Viral EX can be played here: Game Play of Viral EX: - Clear 80 levels and earn the #1 status from the world of Vireal. - You are a virus destroyer in a futuristic world of hostile viruses. Avoid and survive against the all-powerful E.V.E. Computer virus in the battle between the good guys and the bad guys. - Use the Blaster and Deflector shield to fight the battle and defend yourself in VR. - Customize the character using 16 different skins. - Enter the game with your own present. - Help the Princess Sarah and the Virus Destroyer Ragnarok to complete the levels and clear the 80 stages. - The game is very challenging for the experienced gamers and the newbies.
