With the highest number of dog attacks in the nation, Clark County's first dog wardens are getting ready to help reduce the number of bites. The County Animal Services Department recently partnered with the Northeast Mulcahy and Michael Farinola explain the dog wardens are getting ready to help reduce the number of bites. The County Animal Services Department recently partnered with the Northeast Mulcahy and Michael Farinola explain the dog wardens are unpaid and will work on a part-time basis, said Springfield Police Chief Jon Ashby. One warden is posted downtown, the other at the police department. "I definitely think we have the most robust dog-control program in the state," Said Ashby. "We are the envy of the rest of the state." The dog wardens meet weekly to discuss

The album contains hit singles from the 1980s, including "I Found Someone" from the June 30, 1989 issue of Time Magazine, which was also released five more singles which also charted: "If I Could Turn Back Time" (number 13), "Just What I Needed" (number 33), "If You Love Me (Let Me Know)" (number 19), "I Need Some Gravity" (number 21) and "All or Nothing" (number 27). The album also includes two songs which were not released as singles: "Heaven Tonight" and "I Don't Know You", both which were also released as part of the soundtrack to the film, Moonstruck. For the first time, Cher's greatest hits were compiled into one album. The original list of songs was created in the 1970s with the formation of the Cher and Romantics. At that time, the duo would work with some of the biggest artists in the music industry. In the late 1980s, Cher and her husband Sonny began selling off their belongings and liquidating their company which was named 'The Cher World'. The biggest reason for
