other, so the goal and content of the game is as follows. "Killing and Exploring" Game content is focused on killing and exploring. The player moves through the world of the game freely, and while the player is killing, the world changes, and while the game changes, the player is, of course, killing. All that is fun! It is easy to use, but I feel it's a bit boring. "Hero in Your Own Superhero Game" There are a lot of games that are focused on solving a problem. I think that the opposite to those games is rather fun. "The system I like about this game is..." The game system is different from "Great Sword of Dessert", which I loved. Therefore, I want to try out everything I can to see if the game is like that. "I want to play a game similar to this one" For example, "Amnesia", "Fist of the North Star", "Persona 5", etc. I think those are full of fun. I've played those games, and I am looking forward to trying out "Fantasy Action RPG" as well. "ACENTUSA by WITSUP (2019-06-23) "Reveal" (Story) This one is quite a dark one, as well as the usual Dark Clouds we have. it starts with a little tale of saving a princess. It is a tale of self preservation and love. Where another might have let that one go, I learned from her and want to help her in a way. If you have read this, you will understand the twisted world of the game. "New Gods" (Story) The new gods have taken their form in the world. This one touches a bit of all the Gods of the world. This is going to be a very in depth one and even a bit gritty at parts. Hope you enjoy, Acentusa has created an all new world to continue their horrific story. "Live Another Life" (Story) A brilliant brain child and concept bff6bb2d33
