Friday the 13th: The Game is developed by IllFonic, creators of games like Army of TWO, Sanitarium, and Demolition, and is available on the PS4 system for $59.99. Gameplay: We promise this is the most authentic and true-to-life version of the Friday the 13th films that's ever been developed. We've worked with the film rights holders, Steve Kostanski, and Tom Savini to make sure everything is exactly as you remember it and more! The game is not meant to be an exact cinematic experience, but rather, more of an interactive thriller! Our goal with Friday the 13th: The Game was to create an honest, scary experience for anyone who plays it, anywhere, at any time. Our team is excited to put together this version of Camp Crystal Lake and make it safe again. The majority of our work is in game, not on modelwork! "A Quick Tap!" In the games and films, Jason wears a chainmail shirt and jeans and carries a machete. We've added chainmail pants, a belt, boots, a machete, a quarterstaff, and a glock for the best authentic Jason costume you'll ever see.
