More Resources Original Captions for Free Taking a capture photo can be a huge time-saver. Using one of Photoshop's many tools enables you to quickly produce professional captions for your images. 1. Image > Adjustments > Desaturate. While in Desaturate, choose Medium saturation and brighten to 400%. 2. Select the Rectangular Marquee Tool and create a selection bounding the entire image. When using the Edit | Copy command, hold the Ctrl key and click and drag the image into a new document. 3. Select the move tool and place the cursor over a portion of the image. Click and hold down the Alt key, which switches the move tool to the Direct Selection tool. Drag the image into a new document in your desired caption position and release the Alt key. 4. Type the text into the dialog box that appears. To resize the text to fit within the specified area, go to the Align and Distribute tab and choose Vertical Align within the Align drop-down. Use the Line Spacing and Edit > Expand command to create spacing. For example, select 2-pixel spacing, then press Enter. 5. To move the text to new locations, open up the move tool (V) and drag it across to a new location. Delete any text by pressing Delete or X on the keyboard. 6. Use the Select > Modify > Expand command to add text to any other areas within the image. In this case, we've selected the logo on the wing of the first plane and the hatch on the back seat on the second plane. The text also can be mirrored, as shown here. 7. Save the image as a JPEG to use in other documents. Putting a Smart Filters cap on your work Smart Filters are a powerful way to add a professional look to your images. 1. Open the image and select Filter > Adjust > Smart Filters. The Smart Filters palette appears.

2. Choose a type of filter to apply to your image. You can also use Color Variations, which gives you an instant collection of colors that are close to the original image. 3. Selecting the Hue/Saturation tab adds a basic hue/saturation filter to your image. Selecting the Color Variations tab adds variations to the image. 4. Use the sliders to adjust each filter.

Fracture healing in the aging female rat. One of the most common problems in orthopedic surgery is delayed union and nonunion. A major factor in delayed union of fracture is the patient's age. The age of the patient has been found to affect the rate and quality of healing, and has been shown to cause increase bone growth into early callus. In this study, quantitative histomorphometric analysis of healing fractures was performed in 20 female, Sprague-Dawley rats (ages 3, 6 and 18 months). The animals underwent a closed femoral fracture, and were sacrificed at 2 weeks postoperatively. Compared with animals in the 3- and 6-month-old groups, the 18-month-old rats showed fewer total osteoblasts in the callus (pGerard Kenton Gerard Kenton (1875 - 11 July 1919) was an English cricketer. Kenton was a right-handed batsman who bowled right-arm medium pace. He was born at Leicester, Leicestershire. Kenton made his debut for Leicestershire in the 1897 Minor Counties Championship against Bedfordshire. Kenton played Minor counties cricket for Leicestershire from 1897 to 1900, making five appearances. He made his first-class debut for Leicestershire against Essex in June 1901. He made four further first-class appearances, the last of which came against Sussex in September 1901. In his five first-class matches, he scored 114 runs at an average of 14.00, with a high score of 44 not out. This score, one of two fifties he made, came on debut against Essex in the 1901 Minor Counties Championship. He later died at Leicester, Leicestershire on 11 July 1919. Mr. Barroso must be genuinely perplexed. The Polish Prime Minister, Donald Tusk, has given him lots of support, but a scandal of this scale cannot but be surprising. The European Commission was supposed to make big news when it came to personnel change, not the burning of some compromising documents. It is true that Mrs. Malmström's tenure on the Commission seems likely to end up in the dustbin of history. But she had a bright career as a supporter for globalists. Among her shortlisted were the Dutch politician Frans Timmermans, the French politician Margrethe Vestager, the German politician Manfred Weber, the vice president of the European Parliament, Frans Timmermans, and the Italian politician Giuliano Amato. The British Conservative Party candidate, Julia Branson, has also emerged as a strong candidate. Mrs. Malmström showed little interest in party politics. She belonged to a party that merged in a post-communist Union of Christian and Democratic Parties. She was a member of the Green Party, which maintains links to environmental radicalism. More important, Mrs. Malmström represented the party of the Swedish Prime Minister Göran Persson, who made the name of Sweden into one of the strongest globally on behalf of "global governance." Mrs. Malmström had many English clients, and she could thus be a reassuring partner for English business interests. She had previously been a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and New York University's Center for European Policy Studies. She is also considered "one of Europe's most powerful lobbyists." She advocated the old-time globalist concept of "sovereign rights," meaning that no one should interfere in other countries' internal affairs — without even being asked. At the European Court of Justice, she supported the legal principle of "non-discrimination" and the right to legal aid. She supported the just-announced EU doctrine of "polarization" of the world into two blocs — one led by the United States and the other by Europe. One of the most outspoken opponents of Russian President Vladimir Putin in the European Parliament is the Liberal MEP Cecilia Wikström. Mrs. Malmström strongly criticized the Estonian President-elect, Toomas Hendrik Iives, for his opposition to the attempted coup
