Brothers, Ruby Tuesday and P.F. Chang's, the Associated Press reported. The closures of these restaurants and stores are voluntary, and the companies say they are doing so because of the spread of the new coronavirus, also known as COVID-19, in the United States. The list of restaurants and stores closed was released Tuesday and includes 965 closed locations. It also lists 22 states as "hot spots" for COVID-19, including California, New York, Illinois and New Jersey. Coronavirus symptoms include fever, cough and shortness of breath, while the disease may cause mild or severe illness, depending on how the person is infected, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention said. There are more than 28,000 confirmed cases of the virus in the United States and more than 150 deaths. The Associated Press contributed to this report. the viewer takes too long to fully understand the significance of the strategies being discussed.
