They are great ways to learn more about your surroundings, country, and world. They have become the favorite pastime of many people, including the young and old. Visit a museum and see how the industry has changed through the years. Customer Reviews Customer Reviews for a Museum: Victorian Museum Rating: 4.9 out of 5 Review Score: 4.9 September 7, 2017 It was truly a pleasant experience. The volunteer who shows you around is quite knowledgeable. You can see and touch the many historical artifacts in addition to the exhibit space. There was no charge for entry. The price of the day pass is the best value you can find. Our guide gave us the low down on everything that is museum. There were so many things to choose from that I had a tough time picking which items to bring home with me. The things I came home with were way too many and some of them I wasn't even sure what they were. Plus I couldn't take everything that I was allowed to take in with me. The best part was that they didn't have any samples or free gifts. Even the guide told us that they are not into that. It was all about learning. You get such a great view of the history for free just by visiting. Our guide knew everything about the museum so you are in good hands. She is an amazing conversationalist. The museum is well-thought out and displayed with photos of the history that is behind the displays. She explained the history behind each
